

HOLD 2 YOUTHS IN COUNTY PRISON FOR SEVERAL THEFTS

Wm. Jacobs, 16, and Warren Sykes, 18, Both Charged With Junk Theft

ONE AT COURT BEFORE

Boys Admit To Police That They Stole 200 Pounds Of Sash Weights

DOYLESTOWN, Mar. 30—Two Bucks county youths are in the Bucks County Prison awaiting the next term of criminal court because they wanted to become "big junk dealers."

They are William Jacobs, 16, and Warren Sykes, 18, a grandson of an Edison Justice of the Peace, both charged with the theft of junk that they sold to junk dealers.

State Police of the local sub-station and Chief of Police James Welsh arrested them. They told the officers that they wanted to make 100 percent profit on their sales.

One of the boys, Jacobs, was in the juvenile court before for stealing an automobile and was placed on probation.

The boys admitted to police that they stole 200 pounds of sash weights and sold them to a Doylestown township junk dealer. They did $300 damage to the storage machine house of Charles L. Wilkinson, Rushland, where they dismantled a lot of machinery but were scared away. They also stole some iron from the National Farm School, near Doylestown, and sold it to a Doylestown junk dealer.

They were committed to the County Prison by Justice of the Peace Irvin M. James, of this place, in default of $500 bail.

Trooper Felix R. Gowan, of the local sub-station of State Police, Chief of Police James Welsh and Constable A. R. Atkinson conducted the investigation which led to the arrest of the boys.

Trooper Gowan says the boys have confessed to the charges. He said the boys worked on the theory that if they stole the junk they would make 100 per cent profit.

On March 21, according to Trooper Gowan, about 6:30 p. m., Jacobs and Sykes stole about 200 pounds of new sash weights from the rear of the Barrett hardware store, South Main street, this borough. They sold the sash weights to a Doylestown township junk dealer, Trooper Gowan said, for considerable less than they are worth on the wholesale market.

The following day, March 25, it is alleged, the two boys went to the storage shed of Charles L. Wilkinson, Rushland. The men were not working that day because of a heavy rain. Inside the shed, Jacobs and Sykes started to dismantle a governor from a steam engine, worth $150; dismantled a blower worth $150, in addition to a water pump and other machinery, causing damage, State Police say, to the extent of $300.

Clifford Thatcher, employed by Wilkinson, noticed an automobile parked near the storage shed and also saw that the license was covered with a piece of newspaper. Thatcher walked over to the car, tore the newspaper, took the license number and turned it over to the police. It led to the arrest of Sykes and Jacobs, both of whom fled from the Wilkinson place, after they saw Thatcher take the number of the license plate.

Not scared sufficiently, however, Sykes and Jacobs, it is charged, continued their raids and on March 27 they stole about 1000 pounds of iron from National Farm School and sold it to a Doylestown junk dealer for $5.

State police yesterday arrested two junk dealers in connection with the case, John Addis, proprietor of the Doylestown Junk Company, and Solomon Catz, Doylestown. The charge lodged was purchasing junk from minors. Hearings were held last night, each furnishing $300 bail.

ERECTING ELECTRIC LINES IN RURAL SECTIONS

More Than 400 Miles of Distribution Lines Being Built In Three Counties

70 MILES COMPLETED

More than 400 miles of distribution lines to provide rural territory in the Greater Philadelphia area with electric service are now under construction, according to an announcement by the Philadelphia Electric Company. The 1937 budget of the company has allotted funds for this work and calls for completion of the program without delay. Already 70 miles of these lines have been completed.

In areas aggregating ninety square miles in Bucks, Montgomery and Chester counties, crews of the Philadelphia Electric Company are actively at work, ditching, erecting poles, stretching wires and solving many a knotty problem as they go. They are carrying facilities for electric service to the farm and rural dwelling, with lights, electric ranges, electric water heaters, electric refrigerators, radios, water pumps, and other modern appliances being made available to more than five thousand persons.

The area covered by the proposed construction represents less than 6 per cent of the territory served directly by the Philadelphia Electric Company. The remainder of the territory already has had access to service because conditions involving density of population and accessibility made earlier construction feasible.

The plan provides for service extension within the premises of each customer, where necessary, for a nominal distance of 100 feet. This is done to take care of construction from the highway or distribution line to the home of the customer.

"The present step represents a broadening of our extension of service which has been going on for years," it is pointed out by William H. Taylor, president of the company. "Our aim has always been to make extensions as rapidly as conditions made possible.

"Our purpose in establishing our broad rural extension plan has been to make electricity available to owners of farms and rural dwellings on terms within their reach.

"Studies have shown that a minimum monthly revenue for each mile of distribution line is feasible. With an average of four users per mile, the average minimum monthly charge becomes three dollars per customer. For this the customer receives three dollars worth of current at the scheduled rate.

"It should be borne in mind, in considering the problem of rural electrification, that not every one is in a position immediately to take the service, even when it is made easily available. We have provided, however, that in all cases where three-fourths of the potential customers on a proposed line have signed contracts for service, the construction is to be started."

Changes effected in farm life are illustrated by the types of appliances installed. Beginning with lights, the rural customer usually proceeds, where possible, to a water pump, then a radio, range, refrigerator, washer, ironer, sweeper, and, as circumstances may permit, to such important farm aids as feed cutters and motors for other necessary apparatus.

EIGHT-CASE DECREASE SHOWN ON RELIEF ROLL

Total of 551 Cases Are Now Being Aided by Emergency Relief Board

CLOSINGS ARE FEW

During the week ending March 20, Bucks County's direct relief rolls showed a decrease of 8 cases, or 36 persons, over the previous week. A total of 551 cases, or 1,987 persons, are now being aided by the Emergency Relief Board, as compared with 559 cases, or 2,023 persons, carried on the rolls last week.

At the same time, however, it was observed that this decrease in the caseload did not occur as a result of any notable gain in the number of cases being removed from the rolls. In fact, only about one-half as many closings were registered this week as compared with the previous week, i.e., 27 as contrasted with 57. This drop in the number of closings may be attributed almost entirely to the reduction in the number of cases transferred from direct relief to the Works Program.

It can be observed in the summary tabulation of the weekly changes given in the table below, that this decrease in closings was offset by a somewhat proportional decline in the number of new and former relief cases added to the rolls. Thus, the total openings amounted to only 19 cases, as compared with 30 cases last week.

There were three (3) Boroughs and three (3) Townships with no cases on the direct relief rolls for this week. Boroughs: Dublin, Silverdale, Telford. Townships: Newtown, Northampton, U. Southampton.

UNIDENTIFIED MAN IS KILLED BY TRUCK ON LINCOLN HIGHWAY

Accident Occurred Near the Philadelphia City Line Last Night

DRIVER NOW IN JAIL

Antonio Bacigalupo, 33, New York, Unable to Get $2500 Bail

The driver of a large truck, which struck and fatally injured an unidentified man on the Lincoln Highway near the Philadelphia city line, last evening, has been lodged in Bucks County jail in default of $2500 bail, after a charge of involuntary manslaughter was filed against him.

The one arrested is Antonio Bacigalupo, 33, of 2366 Lorillard street, the Bronx, New York.

Description of the victim, given by Corporal Evans of the Oxford Valley sub-station, state highway patrol, shows that he was approximately 40 years of age, height 5' 10", weight 165 pounds, brown hair and eyes, and believed to be of Polish extraction. The man was dressed in a brown suit, blue shirt, dark blue tie with white dots, black overcoat, low black shoes, gray socks, brown felt hat.

The accident occurred one-fourth mile East of the Philadelphia city line, at about eight o'clock last evening. The victim was placed in a car and hurried to Philadelphia County Hospital, Byberry, where he was pronounced dead on admittance. The body was removed to a morgue in Langhorne, and was viewed by deputy coroner of Bucks County, Dr. James Lawler, who issued a certificate.

Bacigalupo was driving a six-wheel truck of the Caravan Motor Freight Company, New York. He stated that he saw the man walking on the 40-foot highway, but as he neared the pedestrian the latter seemed to dart into the path of the truck.

In the victim's clothing was found a Polish Bible, but no money.

MERCHANTS WHO ADVERTISE IN THE COURIER USUALLY SELL AT LOWER PRICES

Bear in mind, that now, more than ever, the merchant who advertises most is the one who can give you the most for your money.

He is buying goods right and selling them right. He does not fear competition—he welcomes it. He tells you freely, openly and frankly what he has to sell and for how much. He is not afraid to expose his prices to the light of day. They are what they should be and he knows it.

Invariably the merchant who advertises offers you the best service and the best prices. Remember, that only that merchant cannot afford to advertise who cannot afford to compete in price and quality. His alternative is to exact a large profit to make up for lack of customers.

You will buy best from him who seeks your patronage the hardest.

THE ISSUE IS PLAIN

As witness after witness appears before the Senate Judiciary Committee to explode Roosevelt's original pretension that additional justices were necessary to relieve the pressure on the overburdened Supreme Court, it must be clear to all that the only issue in this Supreme Court proposal which emanated from the White House is White House—that is to say, Roosevelt—control of the highest court.

Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes blasted what doubt may have persisted in the minds of some who couldn't believe it of Roosevelt. In his sane analysis of the proposal, submitted by letter to the Senate committee, the Chief Justice showed clearly that packing the Supreme Court with six additional justices would retard its work. Roosevelt's first excuse for the scheme was, of course, that additional justices were necessary to "expedite" the work of the court.

The Chief Justice showed the charge that the Supreme Court is behind in its work to be a lie, regardless of how high its source.

The truth is, of course, that the Supreme Court of the United States is not behind in its work, and has not been since William Howard Taft became Chief Justice fifteen years ago.

The decisions of the Supreme Court have been infallibly hewn to the Constitution. Take the case of the lamented NRA—truly dubbed the National Racketeers' Association. The NRA was declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court by unanimous decision.

If there was ever a crack-brained scheme for sovietizing the United States, the NRA was it. For two years, while the crackpots snoop, delved and smelled around in other people's business, business recovery was at a standstill. People were sent to jail for ignoring the edicts of this outfit. Prices were raised artificially to the consumer, employers were harassed, the U. S. was about to be sovietized.

Then the Supreme Court stepped in and, by unanimous decision, threw this New Deal outlaw racket out the window.

Within thirty days business recovery started, despite the gloomy prediction by Roosevelt that we were about to return to horses and buggies.

Many similar instances might be cited in which the Supreme Court has stood for America against un-American attempts on the liberties of the people. The Supreme Court will continue to protect the rights of minorities and the majority as long as it remains a free and independent branch of the Federal Government.

The Supreme Court will not protect the rights of either minorities or the majority if it is packed with new members as proposed by Roosevelt. Thenceforth it will protect only the crackpot schemes that emanate from On High.

Weekly Letter to Home-Makers

A Letter Written by Mrs. Edna Riggs Crabtree to Home-Makers will appear in each Tuesday's issue of The Bristol Courier. Through this medium Mrs. Crabtree will give many helpful hints to home-makers.

Dear Friends:

One of the most important contributions of ingenious modern household equipment has been the taking of gloom out of the traditional wash-day.

In other words, if modern methods are linked with up-to-date equipment and dependable products, home laundry should move as smoothly as any other part of the household machinery.

There is no reason for regarding washday as a dread nightmare, if the job is treated systematically, particularly if modern laundry aids are required to yield 100 per cent service. Primitive methods were responsible for the truly primitive view which discolored washday as "blue Monday."

Part of that attitude was the conviction that frequent laundering wore out clothes, as indeed it did in the early days, for hard scrubbing and harsh soaps were just as damaging to materials as the practice of thumping garments with sticks in a muddy stream.

Actually, years of education have been necessary to convince the cautious housewife that frequent launderings with reliable soap give more than an "ounce of protection"; that is, frequent launderings are proved to lengthen the life of clothing. Prompt washing certainly prevents hard rubbing, as well as quickly getting rid of harmful perspiration, the sure enemy of many materials.

Sort the laundry thoroughly the night before, sewing on buttons or doing needed mending jobs to give that "stitch in time." Soak the soiled clothing overnight, unless you prefer to start in early morning.

Many workers consider that the rapid action of a dependable, quick-dissolving soap powder makes long soaking unnecessary. The one advantage is that it does speed up the morning schedule.

Give special attention to soaping collars and cuffs. Often I hear complaints that men's shirts wear out too quickly, and the damage is blamed on the laundry, whether it is done outside or at home. In many cases, the garments do not get washed often enough, or thoroughly enough.

Don't be afraid of demanding full-time service from your mechanical servants. Learn everything you can about the possibilities of electrical laundry, and then don't be afraid to pile extra garments and linens into the laundry. In addition to prolonging the life of the clothing, that extra washing will eliminate preliminary rubbing and mending work.

If the man of the house has bad grease stains on shirts or underwear, rub a little kerosene into the stained part of the fabric. When the stained garment, thus treated, goes into warm, fresh suds, the spots will vanish, providing the treatment was prompt. The sun will finish the clean-up work.

Another laundry help is the use of a small faucet filter, which will prevent spotting and discoloration from rust scale in water pipes.

Complaints about modern mechanical wringers usually can be traced to impatience, when haste does make trouble. Fold garments carefully so that snaps, hooks and tiny buttons are inside, and remove large and decorative buttons. Distribute garments evenly along the rolls to prevent bunching and excessive wrinkling.

While numerous small articles, such as handkerchiefs, may be run through the wringer with towels or pillow slips, hand ironing of small linens, such as napkins, luncheon runners, or cloths, and special hankies, will be made easier if they are lightly squeezed from the last rinsing water by hand, and rolled in a heavy turkish towel, until ironing time comes.

QUICK AND EASY RECIPES

Cherry Parfait

Often a "hasty hostess" dessert is in demand. This one has novelty and appetite appeal. Whip one and one-half cups heavy cream and fold in one-quarter cup of powdered sugar, one half cup roasted and chopped almonds, one teaspoon vanilla (or desired flavoring) and one and one-half cup spoon salt, one beaten egg, three table-spoons melted butter, one cup of flour.

Chill thoroughly in ice-box and serve in tall glasses topped with a cherry. Deep red cherries make this a colorful dessert. Perhaps you may want to file it for a July 4 party.

Oatmeal Cup Cakes
Mix thoroughly, spoon into greased muffin pans and bake one-half hour in Stir one cup of cooked oatmeal into a moderate oven. Excellent for the one-half cup milk. Add one-half tea-yeaster's lunchbox.

"I live at the beach most of the year and there is hardly a weekend that a number of friends don't drop in. Naturally, I keep several brands of cigarettes on hand for guests, but the Luckies are always the first to disappear. I suppose it's just natural that Luckies would be the favorite brand because most of my friends in pictures have discovered that the long hours of rehearsing and shooting at the studio place a severe tax on the throat. Leading artists of the screen prefer Luckies because they are a light smoke that sympathizes with tender throats."

B. H. S. GYM TEAM TIES BLOOMSBURG FOR 2ND PLACE IN MEET FOR TITLE OF EASTERN PENNA.; SCORE 413 POINTS

By Louis Tomlinson

Pottsville High School, with no less than 16 entrants in the Regional P. I. A. A. gymnastic meet for the title of Eastern Pennsylvania, easily swept the meet to take the title with a total of 679 points. Bristol and Bloomsburg tied for second with a total of 413, while Upper Darby placed third with 199 points.

The Eastern champions scored three out of six firsts, placed seven of their sixteen entrants and qualified 11 out of 16 for the state finals. Two of their entrants placed on both pieces in which they were entered. They were Zimmerman who took the horizontal bar event with a total of 65 points and placed third on the mats with 58; Kirk takes a second and a third, scoring 58 on the horizontal bar, and 51 on the parallel bars for these positions respectively. Zimmerman was high individual scorer with a final total of 123 points while his teammate, Kirk, was second high with 109. Still a third member of the same team placed third in individual scoring by scoring 107 points. He was Willard who won the parallel bar event with 58 points and fifth on mats with 49.

The only other individual to tally over a hundred points was a lone star from Lancaster, Leister, who won the tumbling event with a score of 64, and who placed eighth with a 42 total on the rings. However, Thackara of Bloomsburg with a 51 on the parallel bars which tied him for second, and his 47 on the rings which tied him for fifth gave him a final score of 98.

Of the Bristol entrants, all qualified for the state finals, giving the Cardinals ten entrants for the State College meet next week. Harry Hinman and Carman Mignoni together with Hower of Bloomsburg all tied for first place with a 32 total. Outside of these two, John Vandenberg's 52 score on the horizontal bar placed him third in this event. Although all the rest qualified for the state final as aforementioned, none of the rest were medal winners this week.

Dick Doyle disappointed by scoring only 43 for fifth place on the high bar, and just barely managed to tie for sixth place on the parallel bars with a low 33 score. Bill Gallagher and Bill Mignoni both placed fourth on their respective pieces, the mats and horse, with scores of 54 and 49 respectively. George DeLong with a 44 total came in fourth on the high bar, while George Brown placed fifth on horse and tied for sixth on mats with respective scores of 41 and 33.

Having so many more entrants in the meet than all the other schools gave the champions a tremendous advantage over all opposition. They had three entrants on all pieces except the Indian Clubs and the mats.

And with only eight entrants on the horse and seven in the Indian Club event, one had to qualify no matter how low their score be. The same was true on the horse in which there were only eight entrants, three of which were from Pottsville, necessitating at least one to win no matter how low their score be. And that is precisely what happened in both of these events. The winners fared poorly in both events coming out 6th and 7th in the clubs and 6th, 7th and 8th on the horse, all with low scores.

This is no all, but when these little scores are added with all the other scores combined for the team they add up greatly to the final total. They will also add their score next week.

On the other hand, Bristol was handicapped without an entrant on the rings, and only one on the parallel bars. The same was true of Bloomsburg, who had only one entrant on each of the horizontal bar, mats, and the Indian clubs. However, they had at least one entrant in every piece.

Harry Hinman and Carman Mignoni placed first in a three cornered tie with Hower, of Bloomsburg, in the first event, the Indian clubs, each scoring 32. Galehart of Williamsport with 30, Simon of West Chester with 19, and Seitz of Pottsville with 17 finished 4th, 5th and 6th respectively.

On the high bar, Zimmerman easily captured the laurels with a 65 score, the highest individual score on one piece. His teammate, Kirk, came in second with 58, while Vandenberg of Bristol took third with a 52. Other qualifiers were DeLong and Doyle of Bristol were 4th and 5th with scores of 44 and 43. Veley, of Bloomsburg placed 6th with a 41 total.

The horse, besides the Indian Clubs, was the only other piece in which Pottsville failed to place in the first three. In this event their entrants finished 6th, 7th and 8th out of eight entrants, thus they had to qualify one entrant. And he was Hostler who finished 6th with 31 points. Wilmer Lowe, of Bloomsburg, captured the event with a score of 58. Clark of Upper Darby, District One champ, took second with a 51. Third place went to Robinson of Bloomsburg who just nosed out Bill Mignoni of Bristol for that position by one point, 50-49. Brown of Bristol came in fifth with a 41 total.

Pottsville also won the parallel bars event which was taken by William Willard with a 58 tally. His teammate, Kirk, tied Thackara of Bloomsburg for second with a 51 score. Fourth, fifth and sixth places were taken by Geise of Sunbury, Frey of Pottsville, and Doyle of Bristol and Shannon of Upper Darby tied for last place of the qualifiers. Their respective scores were 45, 35 and 33 for the last two.

Bristol had no entrants on the rings which was a great handicap to them. Had they had at least one entrant on this piece they would have captured second place undisputedly easily. As it stands, Joseph Frey of Pottsville finished on top of the heap with a score of 53. He was tied for this position by another of his teammates, William Seitz, who also scored a 53. Siddall of Upper Darby won third with a 52 total, and Papapitre of Pottsville finished fourth with a 51 score, showing the closeness on this piece. Fifth and sixth places were taken by Garrett of West Chester, and Thackara of Bloomsburg in a tie, each finishing with a 47 total. On the mats, Lester Leister, of Lancaster, took the event with a score of 64, second high individual score and only other score over 60. However, Byron of Bloomsburg, came in with an even score of 60. George Zimmerman of Pottsville wound up in third place with a 58 total, four points better than Bill Gallagher of Bristol who finished fourth with a 54 score. Fifth position was captured by Willard of Pottsville who finished with a 49 total, while George Brown of Bristol and Brooks of Upper Darby finished in a tie for the last qualifying position with a total score of 33.

The State final gymnastic meet will be conducted at State College this Saturday, April 3, in which the winning school as you might presume will be crowned P. I. A. A. gym champions for 1937.

Contributions Being Received By Cadets

From your town, I feel that the special effort made by these youngsters in playing a concert for the shut-ins at Wilkes-Barre Hospital alone is worth a $10.00 bill. I say this because when I was laid up a number of years ago, I would have enjoyed hearing and seeing them, but did not have that privilege.

As a stranger to you I wish you continued success in your efforts and my little mite of $10.00 herewith enclosed, is just a token of appreciation.

Yours very truly,

E. R. BELLAM.

Letters containing contributions have been received from residents of Sellersville and Parkside. If people outside of the town appreciate the services of the Cadet Corps so much that they want to help in making the drive a success, how much more should the citizens of Bristol, who know personally what a splendid and efficient organization this Bugle Corps really is, and what a credit it has become to the town, be willing to contribute to this fund which will be used for such a laudable purpose. Does it seem fair that the townspeople who derive so much benefit and pleasure from the Bugle Corps, should assume a passive attitude, and expect the American Legion Post to bear all the expense? To the contrary, civic pride should inject into the heart of every citizen, a desire to contribute something, to this praiseworthy object, which means much to maintenance of a community spirit and pride in the accomplishments of our local boys.

The Legion Post is sending out letters to many of our citizens asking for donations and these letters will be followed up by a personal contact. Just what course will be pursued after this method has been exhausted, if the amount has not been raised, has not yet been determined. Those who are willing to contribute are asked to send in their donations promptly, as the committee desires to put the drive over quickly.

61st Anniversary of Grange Is Observed receive this degree should take the preparatory work between now and next November. Fifteen members of the local grange have already received the seventh degree.

At the conclusion of the supper an interesting program was presented as follows: piano and mandolin duets, Helen Newbold and Molly Pickering; reading on fraternalism, Jesse Webster; humorous reading, Mrs. Russell Newbold; piano solos, Isabelle Hibbs; reading, "Little Old Town," Mrs. R. Walker Jackson, and vocal solo, "The Little Old Lady," Helen Newbold.

One of the features of the program was a stunt which introduced the well-known "Professor Quiz." This was in charge of Mrs. Hugh B. Webster, and Henry C. Pickering was the winner.

There was an auction of packages which were contributed by the members. This caused a large amount of merriment and a neat sum of money was raised for benefit of the grange.

The next meeting will take place in the Friends' school house on Wednesday evening, April 7. The program for that occasion has not as yet been announced.

Favorite Baby Election Takes Its Rightful Place At Head of Current Events

opportunity to win the title of Community's Favorite, $500.00, and lasting honors. No party issues are involved nor stump speaking—no wire pulling nor lobbying. Just votes. The plan by which winners are to be determined is simple, yet the election will be carried on as painstakingly and as methodically as though the Presidency of the United States were at stake.

The important thing to remember is the EXTRA VOTE CREDIT that is given upon Courier subscriptions the remainder of THIS WEEK and up to Saturday, April 10th, so that you can make a special effort in your favorite's behalf while votes are easily obtained. Remember also that it is the speed attained and HELD right at the finish of any race that usually determines the winners and with such keen interest being manifest in the wee moments throughout the election all of the communities will be eagerly awaiting the outcome. Being a winner in THE FAVORITE BABY ELECTION is going to be quite a distinction for your nominee and please bear in mind that there are TWENTY AWARDS to be made and consequently there will be TWENTY WINNERS.

Remember, new subscriptions count extra votes. Get your friends and relatives to subscribe NOW and assist your baby in being elected FAVORITE of the Community. This suggestion deserves your serious consideration. Determine TODAY to leave nothing undone in your baby's behalf and that THE FAVORITE BABY ELECTION, like the election of the "grownups," will be determined by VOTES. If your baby receives the MOST VOTES, he or she will be declared the Favorite of all the Community's Beautiful Babies and receive the lasting honor, the beautiful big loving cup and the largest cash award. Isn't it worth working hard for? Make it a "landslide" of votes for YOUR favorite.

ROOKIE

"I've only been with the telephone company two months. I'm just a rookie in the ranks. But I've noticed one important thing about this outfit. The big idea around here is SERVICE. That's all I hear. And it's more than a word—it's the real thing. Everybody I've met here works with one thought always in mind—how can we best serve the public? Seems to me, a company with that attitude is on the right track."

Service records of twenty, thirty, even thirty-five years are not unusual among telephone men and women. Most of us regard this as our life's work. Naturally, then, we're vitally interested in this business of ours. That interest is reflected in constant improvement in your telephone service. Today you can telephone across the state or across the nation as easily and clearly as you telephone across the street. Try a long distance call tonight after seven, or any time Sunday, when reduced rates are in effect, and see for yourself.
